

Enter the FULLY DIGITAL! 2020 Peeps Diorama Contest at the Library Arts Center The 9th Annual – New Hampshire’s Original Peeps Competition!

Things are looking a little different in the world this year, but we are still coming together to make a version of this fun, springtime tradition! The Library Arts Center is pleased to present an online, digital version this light-hearted, creative contest using the iconic Easter Candies: PEEPS! Community members of all ages are encouraged to enter. We can't wait to share your creative creations to bring much-needed light and levity during this tremendous time of uncertainty. Challenge yourself to use what you can find in your own home.

Don't have any Peeps yet? Shop locally when possible, and buy some Peeps if you are out getting essentials, but also consider purchasing online to maintain social distancing. Peeps are available on Amazon and other online retailers. Still can't get them on time? Email us at info@libraryartscenter.org, and we will find a way to safely get your some Peeps for your diorama.

To ENTER THE CONTEST: Entry Deadline: Thurs. Apr. 9th at 4:00pm
No Entry Fee – FREE & Open to All

There will be no physical entries this year, in order to keep our community safe, so you will be submitting your entry form and a photo of your diorama online. We are doing away with many of the rules for the contest this year, particularly the size limitation, because we have plenty of room online—haha! But do keep in mind that you will need to photograph your diorama to have it featured in the contest and for our judges to be able to see things clearly, so consider that “bigger” may not be better this year.

The only rule: We ask that the main characters in your dioramas are Peeps!

Need some inspiration?

Do a Google search for “Peeps Diorama” for a multitude of ideas, or scroll through the many creative dioramas from the Arts Center's contest from past years on the website. This will help to get your creative juices flowing, but keep in mind that we LOVE original ideas, and discourage recreating carbon copies of the creative work of others. Take cues from history, current events, pop culture, politics, trends, art & more! We particularly enjoy entries that have a creative play on the word “peep”.

WAYS to ENTER:

- 1) Snap a photo of your diorama and easily upload it with the simple online entry form at libraryartscenter.org/peeps
- 2) Email a photo of your diorama to PeepsDioramaContestLAC@gmail.com, along with your diorama's title, your name, your age, and your hometown (optional.)
