

HELPFUL HINTS

Let me help you
out a little...

#1 What is the bank named for the beautiful river that runs through town? Look there and a rabbit will be found!

#2 Concerts on the common happen here, in the middle of town on the gazebo you'll find a rabbit near!

#3 Playgrounds are the best, and we are happy to say, Newport just build a new on one cool fall day! Go where Laurel and Maple streets meet, and there will be a rabbit happy to greet.

#4 The South end of town stands a church oh so tall, near the front doors find a rabbit tucked by the wall.

#5 On Main Street, between the Post Office and Petal Patch a parking lot is there, tucked by a tree you'll find one happy hare!

#6 The Stone Church, Epiphany be, the host of a happy little bunny!

#7 The Rec Center is a staple in town, tucked in around there you'll find a rabbit does bound!

#8 "Universally" speaking, physical therapy is great! A rabbit rests in a window there after a session helped her injured state.

#9 The back stage door of the Newport Opera House is a place many of us have graced, as the heart of community theater is including us all. There you will find a rabbit waiting for her stage call!

#10 If you missed a carrot clue...here's how to find your way to Destination #10:

*(NOTE: There is no rabbit at destination #10, but there will be prizes (located in a bin right outside the entrance) for the first 25 to finish the scavenger hunt.) you will write the destination name on your entry form.

You are ending up now
Right where this whole thing started.
At the place and in this town
Where imagination and arts are never parted.

You come in here to look and learn,
To listen and to do
The skills you need to turn
Your ideas into what is true for you.

Everyone from everywhere
Is welcome in this place!
The community center that we share
Where art and people face

Each other, one and all.
Happy Easter from Kate and Fran
We hope this has made your spirits call,
Where creativity expands!!
